

I do not feel that NJ's do not call laws are too stringent. If anything the federal law is too lax. I appreciate the protection the law gives me and my family. If I specifically ask not to receive unsolicited calls, that request should be honored without exception. I have a right to privacy in my home and this includes the non-published telephone number which I pay for monthly.